

Access Live™ ensures that you have a secure, moderated, highly-engaging conversation with members of your audience, no matter where they are, on whatever device they choose. Connect with thousands of your constituents, members, and fans in real-time, providing exclusive access and content, while receiving analytics on audience participation, interaction and reaction. When you are unable to connect physically, technology is here to help you reach as many participants as possible.

Here’s how Broadnet’s technology compares to other conferencing services:
